

LETTERS To The EDITOR

Editor, Franklin News Record:
After reading your editorial of Feb. 13 entitled "After The Vote" it became apparent to me that you, as well as the majority on our Board of Education, completely missed the tenor of the opposition to the current school budget.

The Better Schools Now Committee certainly does not represent the opinion of the majority in Franklin although for a small but vocal minority they receive from the Board of Education more official recognition than any other group in the township.

Incidentally, the field trips out from last years budget are being financed by monies not used in other areas.

Maybe Dr. McCredie's "frustrated taxpayers" did not vote for people who promised to cut the budget but rather for people who would make more judicious use of the appropriated money. Cannot anyone see the contradiction between a stringed instrument program in the high school and the unrest at Hillcrest School? When is the control of the schools going to put back into the hands of the administration and the right to discipline given back to the teachers? Some in this town believe that quality education automatically comes from spending more money.

It appears, in the wake of the election, that the Board of Education and the Administration, did not want to listen to constructive criticism. Mr. Oertell helped to prepare and present the budget yet many people who voted for him also voted the budget down (1,513-1,144 equals 369 less votes for the budget). The $15,000 appropriation for land was passed through. It is not that the voters want sizeable cuts in the budget but primarily a reassignment of priority and more emphasis on basic education, internal control of the classroom, and more respect for lawfully constituted authority.

Let us be assured that we are receiving full value for the monies already being spent. Let our Board of Education and our Administration be in the forefront of the fight for more state aid. Let us have more communication and understanding between the people, the Board of Education, and the Schools Administrations.

Editor, Franklin News-Record:
I cannot help but comment on the response of some people to the recent campaigns with regard to the school budget and the school board candidates. There was indignation expressed at the last flyer distributed by the Better Schools Now Committee which was issued in response to the slanderous flyer put out by Mr. Buckley's Citizens Alert Committee. Does no one see fit to criticize Mr. Buckley's method of trying to influence the people of our township?

The campaign conducted by the Better Schools Now Committee was on the highest level and appealed only to the intelligence and the hopes for concern of the voter whereas the campaign conducted by the Citizens Alert Committee resorted primarily to name calling and scare tactics.

As of the writing of this letter the final fate of the school budget has not yet been decided but I would hope that the voters have not yet been unduly influenced by the tactics of the Citizens Alert Committee.

Editor, Franklin News-Record:
Mr. Ward's almost 700 word appeal on behalf of his position was indeed touching if not down right maudlin, to say the least. His attack on your stand for the budget was out of order.

I strongly applaud your courageous editorial stand for the budget, whether I agree with it or not. Perhaps in his eagerness to do battle with the Franklin News-Record, Mr. Ward has lost sight of your right to speak up or against whatever you believe is sound for Franklin Township.

And all this claptrap about distortions and misrepresentations, where was Mr. Ward's voice raised in opposition to the Upton and Fisher flyer that suddenly appeared during the last days of the recent election campaign. School Board member Edward Alan raised his voice at last Monday night's reorganization meeting to protest the half-truths and distortions that appeared throughout the flyer. On the other hand if these serve your purpose, why rock the boat.

Oh yes, Mr. Ward's remarks about polarization were most interesting too. He did little in this area to unify the board members but added to the polarization by hastening to align himself with the so-called minority. What hope can the community have then, that Mr. Ward will be an independent voter and factor if we already know his voting alignment for the next two years.

This is a disturbing element and factor in Franklin's school board elections. Candidates profess their desire to do the very best for the community while raking each other through the coals every chance they get. To utilize the school facilities to air their differences each meeting is an insult and a blot on the community.

Hopefully, the next election will produce a board that will be unified as one and that will really care about our children's welfare and future.

Yours for editorials pro and con and for a truly unified school board

Two Homes Being Sought For Displaced Families

Homes for two displaced families are being sought by Health Officer John Carlano.

Each of the families, Mr. Carlano said, needs at least three bedrooms, since the one has five children and the other four.

The township Advisory Board of Health expressed concern last week over the two families and over eight others that it said are living in "squalor-like conditions" in sub-standard houses. Calling for immediate action, Mr. Carlano said one of the displaced families has become "disorganized" and "very distraught."

Neither of the families is on welfare, according to Mr. Carlano, but in each case either the mother or the father is missing from the home.

Of the township's nine councilmen, only Lawrence Gerber re-

Airman Gadberry Serving With Navy

Airman Wayne R. Gadberry, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Gadberry of 34 Hillview Ave., Franklin Park, and husband of the former Miss Jill Clark of Los Coches, San Jose, Calif., is serving with Navy Patrol Squadron 19 at the U.S. Naval Air Station, Moffett Field, Calif.

His squadron is conducting a training cycle, designed to maintain a high degree of operational readiness in the fields of anti-submarine warfare and ocean shipping surveillance.

The squadron patrolled the coastal waters of South Vietnam and the Gulf of Tonkin sponded to the board's request that they attend the meeting to help straighten out the situation.

Mr. Gerber promised to "build some type of fire under the Housing Authority and HAND (the Housing and Neighborhood Development Corp.)" He said that Council will meet with both groups shortly, and will attempt to "take action with all deliberate speed."

Middlebush Youth In Navy School

Navy Lieutenant Thomas D. Kennally, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Kennally of 11 Buffa Drive, Middlebush, is attending a course of instruction at the Naval Training Center, Pacific, Naval Air Station, North Island, San Diego, Cal.

A graduate of Notre Dame University, Notre Dame, Ind., Lt. Kennally entered the service in June, 1964.

Philip Gessner Completes Basic

Airman Philip E. Gessner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Gessner of 446 Wheeler Place, Somerset, has completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

He has been assigned to Keesler AFB, Miss., for training in communications electronics systems. Airman Gessner was graduated in 1967 from Franklin High School and attended Programming and Systems Institute in Highland Park.

Hadassah Will Hold Auction March 12

"With the repossession of its facilities atop Mt. Scopus, as a result of the Six-Day War, Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, is expanding its health services for the people of Israel," said Mrs. Joseph Grosser, Chapter Chinese Auction Chairman for the Raritan Valley Chapter of Hadassah, at a planning meeting held last night.

In order to implement this project of providing more health services to the Middle East, Mrs. Grosser and Mrs. Lawrence Wald, co-chairmen, announced that the Auction will take place on Wednesday, March 12 at 8 p.m. in St. Paul's Auditorium, Fifth and Raritan Avenues, Highland Park.

Tickets for the auction may be obtained from the chairmen and from Mrs. Jay Weiss, East Brunswick; Mrs. David Kreindler, Franklin; Mrs. Bernard Fingerhut, Herzl group; and Mrs. Emanuel De Coveny, Weizmann group.

Mrs. Grosser then went on to explain, "The former Hadassah Hospital Building on Mt. Scopus will be part of the Hadassah Hebrew University Medical Center at Ein Karem, and will incorporate all the sophisticated devices required to restore the handicapped to an as-near-normal life as possible."

"Plans call for the inclusion of 10-15 patients' rooms with four to five bed capacity, with the remaining rooms to be designed for one or two beds," she said.

"The Rehabilitation Pavilion will be closely associated with the School of Occupational Therapy which will eventually occupy the former Hadassah School of Nursing on Mt. Scopus. A unique institution in Israel, the School of Occupational Therapy is now housed in the old Russian Com-pond of Jerusalem. It functions as a joint operation of Hadassah, the Israel Government, Malben and Kupat Holim, under Hadassah's administration," said Mrs. Grosser.

Mrs. Grosser then went on to explain that "Arabs from East Jerusalem and the Israel-occupied West Bank of the Jordan River are streaming into Hadassah Hospital for treatment. Some cases, she noted, are even coming from the Kingdom of Jordan. Under an agreement between Hadassah and the United Nations Relief Works Agency hospitals in the Arab refugee camps on the West Bank and with the Augusta Victoria Hospital in East Jerusalem, patients suffering from various types of cancer are now being sent daily to the Hadassah Cancer Clinic at Ein Karem. There they receive deep X-ray therapy and chemotherapy. Thirty such cases are being handled daily by Hadassah."

The Hadassah - Hebrew University Medical Center, headquarters for the Hadassah Medical Organization, consolidates Hadassah's medical facilities in a modern building complex. It now includes a teaching hospital with service laboratories; the Adolf and Felicia Leon Mother and Child Pavilion for maternity and infant care; the Rosensohn Outpatient Department; the Henrietta Szold - Hadassah School of Nursing and Residence; the Hebrew University - Hadassah Medical School, the first medical school in Israel founded in 1949 by the Hebrew University and Hadassah; the Hebrew University - Hadassah Dental School, founded by Alpha Omega; the John F. Kennedy Building which serves as a tourist and information center; and a synagogue.

Aboard The Dahlgren

Radarman Third Class Joseph F. Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Quinn of 16 Ulysses Road, Somerset, is presently serving aboard the U.S.S. Dahlgren, a U.S. Navy guided missile frigate now sailing in the Indian Ocean.

RD3 Quinn is a graduate of Franklin High School, and during his junior year he received an Award of Honor plaque for heroism for rescuing some people from the Raritan River in 1964.

He attended Seton Hall University from 1965 to 1967, and in February of 1967 he enlisted in the Navy for four years. RD3 Quinn took basic training and advanced schooling at Great Lakes, Ill., and was assigned to the U.S.S. Dahlgren in January 1968.

The Dahlgren is one of an increasing number of guided-missile frigates commissioned by the Navy in current construction programs. Her weapons include the advanced Terrier guided missile, the anti-submarine rocket, two triple tube launchers, and five and three inch calibre naval guns.

The Dahlgren is presently serving as flagship for Rear Admiral Edward R. King, Commander of the Middle East Force. Prior to this cruise, the ship served as flagship for Rear Admiral James A. Dare, commander of the South Atlantic Force.

With RM3 Quinn aboard, the

Dahlgren, on its previous cruise with Admiral Dare aboard, sailed off the West African coast and stopped at various ports of call there. Titled "Solant Amity 69" the ship stopped at five West African countries as an expression of the friendship and good will of the United States for the countries and people of that area of the world.

After completing the cruise, the Dahlgren sailed to its present position in the Indian Ocean. With Admiral King aboard, the ship is serving as flagship, and is scheduled to return to the United States in early summer.

Voters Defeat School Budget Second Time

Voters rejected the proposed township school budget for a second time Tuesday.

Included were the $4,905,000 current expense item and the $118,000 capital outlay item, both unchanged by the Board of Education after their initial defeat by the voters Feb. 11. Of the $7 million total proposed school budget for the 1969-70 school year, these two are the only items needing the approval of the voters.

The budget proposal will now go to Township Council, for final passage -- with or without cuts, as Council sees fit. Council's action, which must be taken within 10 days, will stand as passed, without a third referendum by the voters.

Negotiations With Unions Will Begin

Negotiations are expected to begin tomorrow or Monday between the township and the two unions elected by the municipal employees on Tuesday.

The Franklin Township Municipal Employees Association, which will handle the bargaining for 87 non-supervisory employees, presented its initial set of demands to Township Manager James Westman, according to association President Mrs. Maureen Ehret. It was passed by a vote of 66 to four.

The Franklin Township Municipal Supervisors Association received a unanimous vote from the 14 who went to the polls. John Carlano is the president of this group.

By agreement between the unions and the township, Tuesday's election was conducted by former Superintendent of Schools Dr. Sampson G. Smith, whom they recognized as a neutral party.

Board of Education and Police Department employees are not included in these unions.

The township's $2,905,000 proposed municipal budget is considered tentative until the salaries and benefits are settled. The public hearing on the budget is set for March 10.

FHS Students In Engineering Day Program

Mrs. Wilma Harnar, an advisor at Franklin High School, along with Robert Birkland, Brian Hemming, Daniel Mason, and Mike Hirsh, students at the high school, participated in an Engineering Day Program sponsored by Personal Products Company, Milltown.

All students visiting the North Brunswick plant were juniors or seniors interested in pursuing engineering careers.

This engineering program was held on Feb. 19 in conjunction with Engineers' Week which was celebrated between Feb. 16 and Feb. 22. This program was also part of a chapter development project of the Raritan Valley Chapter of the American Institute of Industrial Engineers. Warren Slater, senior Industrial Engineer at Personal Products and Chapter member, co-ordinated this visit.

The plant visit was kicked off by a welcome from the factory Manager, E. Sutherland. This was followed by a presentation by H. Wagner, vice-president and director of personnel, on the "Engineer in Management". Other highlights included a film, "Engineering - the Challenge of the Future" and plant tour of the manufacturing and research facilities at Personal Products.

The program was rounded out by short talks from four engineering managers representing all phases of engineering within the plant. A question and answer period followed. The program concluded with lunch in the plant cafeteria.

Public Secrets?

A strange side effect of the Public Employees Relations Committee (PERC) Act, passed by the state legislature in 1968, seems to be that a veil of secrecy will be falling over the salaries of public employees each year, when that season comes 'round in which boards of education and local governing bodies are involved in negotiations.

The PERC Act, requiring all towns to allow their employees to form or join unions and to bargain collectively with them, has transformed the formerly informal salary talks into formal negotiations between the township team and the employees team, surrounded with the same secrecy as negotiations in industry.

No doubt it is better for public employees to have the same rights as other employees, and even those who do not agree with this idea would probably admit that the change is inevitable. A conflict emerges, however, between the need for secrecy and the value we traditionally place upon allowing the public to keep track of what their elected officials are doing.

An example of the problem: When the Board of Education budget was introduced and publicly advertised in January, board officials admitted in private that the salary figures shown in it did not mean much, since they were virtually sure to be changed after a salary agreement was reached with the Franklin Township Education Association (FTEA).

Although the salary expenditure finally agreed to by the board, having been reached by collective bargaining, was effectively out of the voters' control, the secrecy situation did prevent them from seeing the board's total budget until the very night that the board met to pass it. The purpose of advertising the proposed budget has always been to allow the people to come out and discuss it with the board, and changes in the budget after it is advertised are supposed to be based on the feedback that comes from these discussions.

Another example of the conflict: Certain citizens and even members of the Police Department are known to be concerned with the condition of the township's police cars. A public official admits that the township has had difficulty in establishing a preventive maintenance system for the cars, for a number of reasons. The biggest problem now, however, he says is shorthandedness at the township garage, since one of the three mechanics quit several months ago and it has been impossible to replace him at the present wage scale.

A new salary for mechanics, high enough to attract competent men, is certain to be included in the wage contract now being negotiated with the township employees, this official says. But until the contract is signed, no offers above the old level can be made to mechanics interested in the job. The police cars are frequently out of service for repairs two at a time, occasionally they break down, and the two mechanics trying to keep up with the maintenance of all the township's vehicles can not be given any help because doing so could compromise the bargaining position of the township.

The whole secrecy problem is apparently one of the wrinkles yet to be ironed out of the brand-new PERC Act.

A Non-Profit Organization

The Franklin Day Care Association is now incorporated as of January 1969 as a non-profit organization.

The first fund raising will be a Community Membership Drive in which literature will be given out telling what the philosophy and aims of the association are.

Any organization desiring this information can request a representative of the Franklin Day Care Association to attend one of their meetings or send a representative of theirs to a meeting of the Franklin Day Care Association. The fourth Tuesday of each month from 7:30 - 9 p.m. at the Hillcrest School.

Plans are being made for a special program showing a film telling what day care is. The association wants this to be a community project because the whole community can benefit from having a non-profit day care center.

Meeting Dates

The Franklin Township Board of Education announced the following schedule of meeting for the coming year: March 17 at Sampson G. Smith Intermediate School; April 21 at Franklin Park School and May 19 at Sampson G. Smith Intermediate School.

The June 16 meeting will be held at Elizabeth Avenue School; July 21 and Aug. 18 at Sampson G. Smith Intermediate School; Sept. 15 at MacAfee Road School, and Oct. 20 at Sampson G. Smith Intermediate School.

The Nov. 17 meeting is planned for Kingston School; Dec. 15 at Sampson G. Smith Intermediate School; and Jan. 19, 1970 at Hillcrest School.

Some of the widest margins against the budget were recorded at the Middlebush School, where the current expenses lost by 415 to 70 and the capital outlay lost by 416 to 73, and Community Firehouse, where the current expenses lost by 228 to 23 and the capital outlay lost by 233 to 25.

A total of 3,459 persons voted.

Meetings between the Board of Education and Township Council, to decide the cuts that council may make, are expected to begin Tuesday.

Township Council May Withdraw Its Variance Appeal

Township Council is expected tonight to offer to withdraw its pending appeal of a variance granted to builder Howard Fox last year by the Somerset County Court. Conditions of the offer will be that Mr. Fox drop his current counter-suit against the township, and that his proposed garden apartments conform to township zoning laws in all respects except the township's "20 per cent" clause, from which he was explicitly excused in the court decision.

The 20 per cent clause limits the number of apartment units in the township to 20 per cent of the current number of one-family houses. A new apartment complex cannot ordinarily be approved if it will bring the total number of apartment above that figure.

In other business tonight, a public hearing is scheduled for a change in Zoning Board procedure, allowing applicants for variances to serve notice of the application to their neighbors by certified mail, as an alternative to the personal service now required.

The change, if it is made, will conform the board's procedures to a recent change in state law. A variance, recently recommended to council by the Zoning Board, is expected to be granted to Lazzarra's Bakery, for the construction of a small garage shed at the rear of its building.

Franklin State Bank's newest office located on Route 27, Kingston. It opened for business in April of 1968. The full-service office is a completely renovated Victorian home.

Franklin State Bank Outlines Record Growth During 1968

Franklin State Bank reported record growth in all areas of the bank during 1968, it was jointly announced by Mayo S. Sisler, chairman of the board and Anthony D. Schoberl, president.

The five year old Somerset County Bank recorded a 36 percent increase in assets to $41,265,956. At the same time, deposits increased to $35,675,266, an increase of 33 percent. Mr. Sisler said that net earnings for the year were $299,375, an increase of 73 percent over the past year. He went on to say that per share earnings increased from $2.01 to $2.71 or 35 percent based on an average of 110,639 outstanding shares.

Mr. Schoberl said that highlighting the year was the opening of the bank's newest office in Kingston. The office is a completely renovated Victorian home, which has been converted into a full-service commercial bank. Daily banking hours at Kingston are from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m., as well as Saturday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., with the lobby open Saturday from 9 a. m. to noon and Thursday evening 6:30 to 8 p. m. These are the same hours offered by all Franklin State offices.

He went on to say that during 1968, an application was filed with the State Banking Commissioners office requesting approval of a branch office in the Borough of Millstone. Approval for the branch was received early in 1969 and a Sept. 1, 1969, opening is planned. On July 1, 1968, the Board of Directors named Mayo S. Sisler chairman of the Board of Directors and Anthony D. Schoberl assumed the title of president.

Mr. Sisler said that the bank was fortunate in having William E. Ozzard join the Bank as a director. Mr. Ozzard was named to the post in August. He is currently a member of the N.J. Public Utilities Commission. An attorney with offices in Somerville, he served in the General Assembly for four years and the State Senate for ten years.

Mr. Schoberl said in order to strengthen the internal organization of the bank three major divisions were created during the year: operations, loans and marketing. Each division has a vice-president at its head. Harry H. Nye has joined the bank as head of the Operations Division, James C. Gavin was named head of the Loan Division and Richard F. Schaub has joined the bank as head of the Marketing Division.

Eleanor T. Bruns and M. William Benner were promoted to Assistant Vice Presidents and Donald Fine and Richard Pavan to Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer respectively. Because of the bank's management concepts, emphasizing continuing education and training, other people have been promoted from within the organization.

According to Mr. Sisler, the bank plans to construct a new main office at the intersection of Franklin Boulevard and Hamilton Street, adjacent to the present main office. Construction of the new 40,000 sq. ft., two-story building was necessitated by the record growth the bank has experienced in the five years since it was opened, and the continued record growth of Franklin Township.

He went on to say that the bank introduced another new business service in 1968. An armored car service was instituted offering currency pick-up and delivery to bank customers throughout all of Central New Jersey. The new service has received enthusiastic acceptance by many area companies.

Mr. Schoberl anticipates the continued rapid growth of the entire Central New Jersey area, and the bank which is among the fastest growing in both the State and the Nation, to play an active role in this growth.

Payroll Deduction Plan Offered

The Somerset County Board of Chosen Freeholders is offering county employees an opportunity to purchase U.S. Savings Bonds and Freedom Shares under a payroll deduction plan. The First National Bank of Somerset County is supporting the county effort by handling the fiscal aspects of the plan. During a two-week period members of a committee of county employees are contacting fellow workers on a decision to "join with millions of our fellow Americans in helping our country and ourselves." In a letter addressed to all county employees, Freeholder Director Bjorn E. Firing pointed out that Savings Bonds and Freedom Shares now pay the highest return in their history. "It is not often that an opportunity for personal benefit provides the means for helping your country at the same time," Mr. Firing said. Shown above, Freeholder Director Firing, left, discusses payroll deductions plan for county employees to buy Savings Bonds with Mrs. Luella H. Meyers, tax analyst supervisor, who will contact taxboard employees, and Freas L. Hess Jr., vice president of the First National Bank of Somerset County.

Must Take Kerner Report Seriously Says Minister

"The Church must take the Report of the Kerner Commission seriously when it states that, 'White institutions created it (the ghetto); white institutions maintain it; and white society condones it,' for the Church has been one of the chief institutions creating racial turmoil in this nation," Rev. John D. Painter, Minister of the Montgomery United Methodist Church, told his congregation on Race Relations Sunday, Feb. 9, and again on Brotherhood Sunday, Feb. 16.

These two traditional Sunday observances fall one right after the other in the United Methodist Church. This provided the opportunity for a two part series on racial relations and brotherhood by Rev. Painter.

"But we must move beyond blame and accusation," Rev. Painter stated, "We have had enough forensics on the subject of racism. Let us accept our responsibility in the creation of the problem and seek to move beyond this to solutions."

"Rev. Painter outlined some of the solutions he felt the Church could bring to bear uniquely upon the situation of racial unrest: 'God, the Creator, has called all things good which he has created, and he has not seen fit to distinguish between classes or races. Who then are we to set standards or erect barriers which are not intended?'

A better understanding of the inherent dignity of the human being, a reshuffling of the priorities of life from the material to the human, and a willingness to allow human standards of separation - national, creedal, or racial - crumble so that men might see only other human beings, were seen as other solutions to the problem of human relations in 1969.

"The moment is here, the time is now," Rev. Painter declared, "to stand up and be counted in the strife of truth with falsehood. We cannot hide from the bitterness of black men - we must come to grips with it - we cannot escape it. Only as we are willing to understand the depth of despair in many black men; only as we can readily accept the burning passion for freedom which cannot be put out among our black brothers, perhaps only then can we realize the wisdom of stepping aside so that we are not barriers to any man's fulfillment of what is already his by birth."

Challenging his congregation to go out as "agents of reconciliation - change agents - in the world," Rev. Painter concluded by stating: "No longer can the black man be told he is not ready yet, that he must earn his place in society. Never again can there be second-class citizens in this world. For this is God's world, and we are - black, yellow, and white together - God's people."

LETTERS To The EDITOR

Editor, South Somerset Newspapers:

I being an active member of the Board of Education, the New Jersey Designer-Craftsman Inc., The American Craftsman's Council and an exhibitor of many museums ask your support for the continuation of the Newark Museum. The City Council does not feel that it can provide funds for the museum after April 1, 1969 and has set April 1 as its closing date of the museum. Enriching the lives of Americans in this country is of extreme importance and the museums serve this needed purpose.

In the past, the Newark Museum had the express reputation for carrying on a vast cultural program for children; along with shows, workshops, seminars, exhibitions etc., for adults and children.

Foreign countries express themselves to the fact that the U. S. is not very cultural minded, and do not greatly appreciate the fine arts. They directly attach this with the love and understanding of people. The museum is a universal place and it is here that all cultures of the world are exhibited so that we can look and understand why certain things are happening today.

If our complex world is to survive, we must have brotherhood among all people. A place to go to and admire other cultures and skills in an atmosphere conducive to genuine pleasure and relaxation and enthusiasm could only promote such a brotherhood. Our museums are these places! To promote a love of beauty, discipline, skill, understanding and comprehension should be our goal for all our children. Museums are for all people. We must support them, for in so doing, we support all reason for living-not existing-but living; in a word... Brotherhood!

I often wonder what is happening with the narrow-minded political leaders to let this kind of thing go by in this Poor! Poor! state of New Jersey.

Will you please write your assemblyman, send a copy to a city clerk at the City Hall in Newark and a copy to one or both of the newspapers - Newark Evening News or the Newark Star Ledger - asking them not to close the museum.

CAMPUS SECRETARIES CLUB: Somerset Valley Industrial Campus secretaries this week are launching a new organization on the industrial park campus in Franklin Township. Organizing members who made up the steering committee talk over plans above. Left to right are Mrs. Priscilla Panettiere, Mrs. Harold N. Michel, Miss Mary Jane Clem and Mrs. George Adams.

Somerset Industrial Campus Secretaries Club Is Formed

A new organization on Somerset Valley Industrial Campus is underscoring the "family" aspect of Somerset County's largest industrial park. Eight companies now are located on the 320-acre site in Somerset, and two others soon will be moving to the campus. Sparked by a steering committee of charter employees, the Secretaries Club of the Somerset Valley Industrial Campus is holding its first general meeting this week at Fiddler's Elbow Country Club in Bedminster Township.

Mrs. Priscilla Panettiere, office manager and secretary to Horace C. Shuman, SVIC general manager, will represent the campus management in an advisory capacity at club meetings. Members of the steering committee who set up the new organization are the first three secretaries employed in the industrial park. They are Mrs. Mary Adams of John Wiley & Sons; Mrs. Edith Michel of Tubotron and Miss Mary Jane Clem of Hurty-Peck Eastern.

Mrs. Adams, a resident of Holly street, Somerset, and the wife of George T. Adams, is secretary to Gene De Marchi, Wiley manager, customer relations. She had been with Hurty-Peck Eastern from 1965 to 1967 as secretary to the general manager. Mrs. Adams is acting chairman of the new Secretaries Club. Mrs. Michel, the wife of Harold N. Michel, lives on Prospect street, South Bound Brook. She is secretary to Richard Ochs, executive vice president of Tubotron, and has been with the firm since 1963. She was previously with General Radio Service in Kearny for 12 years and E. L. DuPont de Nemours in Arlington for six years. She is the club's acting vice chairman.

Miss Clem, who lives in Lennox Court, Piscataway, is acting secretary of the club. She is secretary to Frank DeMarla, vice president and general manager of Hurty-Peck. She was employed previously at DeLuxe Topper Corporation in Elizabeth and at Burke & Corbin Associates, New York City.

Mrs. Panettiere, who lives on Cherry avenue in Bound Brook, has been associated with the campus management since 1963. Goals of the club are self-improvement and service, combined with social and sports activities. Speakers will be invited to meetings, and skits are planned on secretarial "how to" and "how not to."

Future 4-H Center Construction Started

Construction on the future 4-H Center started two weeks ago. The first of two buildings is under way on the 6 acre Milltown Road site. The first building is of block construction, masonry proof layed on a concrete slab with an aluminum roof.

The building will provide for storage of the materials used in the production of the continually growing 4-H Fair. The second building, scheduled for erection later in the year will contain an auditorium and meeting rooms. The building of the Center is just one of the responsibilities of the Somerset County 4-H association, sponsored by a number of civic groups and consisting of 25 Board of Directors representing these groups.

Members reside in all areas of the county from West Millington to Blawenburg and from Green Brook to Branchburg. Urban areas are represented by Mrs. Jeanne Richards of Bound Brook, Mrs. Dorothy Pacifico of Raritan, and Robert Ball of Somerville. Many groups are represented by the County Education Association is represented by teachers Mr. Jerry Weinberg of Hillside School, Bridgewater and Mrs. Bertha Gillick of Franklin Park School, Franklin. County Service clubs are represented by Mr. Henry Viswat, Kiwanis District Lieutenant Governor, and the County PTA by Mrs. Charles Hoos of Green Brook.

Community Center Rights Office Closes

The Civil Rights Commission office in the Fuller Street Community Center has been closed, due to lack of complaints for the commission to process.

The office was opened five months ago, staffed by two commission members on Wednesdays, in an attempt to improve communications between the commission and the community.

The decision to close the office came Thursday, Feb. 27, at the commission's final meeting before reorganization for the coming year. Only four cases were processed by the commission, based on complaints received at the office during the five months.

"The poor response we got indicated a lack of trust in the commission," said outgoing Chairman Raymond Mesiah. "We failed to communicate," he concluded.

Feeling that such a facility is still needed in the black community, the commission decided to consider reopening the office at its next meeting.

As another approach to the "communications gap," Franklin Action Committee for Equality (FACE) Chairman Jack Field suggested that the commission send a monthly newsletter to residents. The commission agreed to consider a newsletter on a quarterly basis.

FACE is an independent arm of the commission.

Mr. Field reported that FACE's employment committee plans to go to employers on a person-to-person basis to get jobs for the unemployed. Setting up an employment office in the Community Center is also a possibility, he said.

Ronald Copeland, director of the Hamilton Park Youth Development Project, reported to the commission that he has been unable to arrange a meeting with Township Council to discuss increasing the project's budget. "If we don't get adequate funding, in three weeks we will fold up," he said. "It will have a bearing on racial peace."

The commission sent a request to council, that it meet to discuss the plight of the Youth Development Project.

Commission member Mrs. Lenore Greenberg said that the commission has not yet faced up to its responsibility of educating the white community on racial problems.

So Now You're A Boat Owner

So now you're a boat owner... so what. Do you realize all the things you must do when you buy a used boat? I sure didn't.

My immediate problem was a place to store it for the rest of the winter and in the spring until I was ready to launch it.

I could leave it at the former owners house, but I couldn't work on it there, and the trip from my apartment was too long. So, I put an advertisement in the newspaper: WANTED: Garage or barn to store boat for winter.

The response was terrific. My telephone about rang off the wall. It seems that everybody has an extra garage they would love to rent. Unfortunately, they all wanted too much money, or the garage wasn't big enough to hold the boat. Boat and trailer are over 22 feet long, and just about seven feet wide.

I finally got a call from a fellow in a nearby town. He said he had a carriage house type garage which he thought would hold my boat. The price was right, so I went out and looked at it.

If the boat would fit, it was ideal. It had a concrete floor, lights, and power outlets... if it would fit. The garage opening was seven feet, 4 inches... a mighty tight fit. While only 16 feet deep, the width was such that if we could maneuver the boat in, it would fit on an angle.

I'd like to say that I was convinced that it would fit, but I wasn't. However, since nothing else had cropped up to my liking, I decided to take a chance and try it.

This brought up another immediate problem... I didn't have anything to tow the boat with. Fortunately the former owner said he would haul it down for me (which made me worry that he was a little too anxious to get rid of it.)

So Saturday morning I drove out to the boat, we hitched it up to his camper and started out. I was gratified that the trailer did move, and seemed to function properly.

We arrived and made mistake number one. We were going to back the boat into the garage, so we removed the engine first, since I had made arrangements for it to be stored elsewhere. Unfortunately the boat was balanced on the trailer so that it could be easily lifted with one hand... that is when the engine is on the boat.

By removing the engine we upset that balance. Instead of being able to lift it with one hand, it now took two men, grunting and groaning, to barely lift it.

We slowly started pushing it into the garage, and I breathed a sigh of relief as it just barely slid through the door. However, our plans to angle it in sideways didn't work out entirely. Because of the broad beam (width to you landlocked yachtsmen), we couldn't maneuver it. We got a small angle and it just fit, with stern (back) against the rear wall, and bow (front) two inches inside the door opening. It wasn't the most perfect fit... but it did fit.

The former owner, who seemed too anxious to leave to suit me, departed, and we took the engine down to be tuned up and stored for the winter. While outboard engines may look relatively light, let me assure you they are not. We finally got the thing into the marine store and left. (I spent two days and nights soaking my back to recover from the experience.)

So there I was... all settled in... right? Wrong! There were a few other details to be taken care of. The problem of hauling my boat around on the back of my Volkswagen was solved when the company I work for agreed to put a trailer hitch on the back of their company truck, which I would be allowed to use twice a year... once to haul it down to the shore in the spring, and once to bring it back in the fall.

The next problem was solved when my friend (after buying my boat I'm still considering the validity of that term) and I went down to Waretown, N.J. on Barnegat Bay, where he kept his boat. After talking to the marina owner he agreed to let me have a slip (dock for boat) the next season. Problem number two solved.

Some rather unexpected problems arose. When I went to change registration on the boat I discovered that you have to pay sales tax on used boats, just like on used cars... an expense I hadn't anticipated. Then there was trailer registration, garage rental, and boat insurance to be paid for. (I wonder if Tom Sawyer had all these problems?)

What started out as a relatively sound financial proposition rapidly had turned into a rather wild, extravagant headache.

But the dreams that go with owning a boat have made it all seem worth while. At night one dreams about all the many things which can be done to turn your boat into a yacht. A new paint job, perhaps a little natural wood here and there, new chrome, water skis, fishing gear, a ship-to-shore radio, flags flying... yes, visions of dollar signs jumping over ship masts danced in my head. NEXT WEEK: Boat Owners... A Strange Breed.

Girls Team Wins Games

The Manville High School girls Varsity Basketball team has won its last three games to bring the season record to 7-1.

In a very close game with Piscataway High School, the girls managed to come from behind and score a 36-31 victory. Piscataway held the lead until mid-way through the last quarter, Manville held Piscataway to 3 points during this quarter to take the lead. Patti Stansley had 13 points and Ann Romanoski had 12 in that game.

South Plainfield was the next victim of the Mustang Women. Trailing at the beginning of the fourth quarter, the girls went on to beat South Plainfield 43-38. Kathy Shulack took individual scoring honors with a season high of 25 points. Patti Stansley chipped in 11.

Middlesex proved to be no match for the MHS girls and fell to the score of 67-19. High scorers were Patti Stansley, 20 points, Kathy Shulack 12 and Georann Burch 10.

The Junior-Varsity has also won its last three games. They beat Piscataway 15-12, South Plainfield 16-14 and Middlesex 15-12. Mary Worobj has been leading scorer for the JV's. She scored 9 points in the South Plainfield victory and 10 against Middlesex. The JV's season record is 5-1.

The girls have three more games remaining in their schedules. They play Highland Park and Middlesex in afternoon matches and will entertain Sayreville at home on Friday, March 7 at 8:30.

Middlesex High walked off with the team crown by scoring 80 points. The Blue Jays netted 47 points a year ago.

Franklin and Piscataway, the pre-tourney favorites, wound up tied for second with 75 points each. The Warriors won with 78 points a year ago and Piscataway was second with 74 points in 1968.

'Y' Girls Swim Team Loses Title Contention

The Somerset Valley YMCA girls swimming team was eliminated from championship contention as they lost to a strong Central Bergen YMCA of Hackensack by a 112-88 score last Saturday. The two teams were tied for the runner up spot in the league standings going into this meet and had swum to a tie score of 103-103 in an earlier meeting this season.

The diving competition saw Jayne Clyde of Somerset Valley take first place in the 12 and under division with Linda Barnicki placing second. However, in the older 13-17 division the Central Bergen diver pulled an upset, becoming the first opponent to win a first place against Coach Dave Flegley's divers in dual meet competition this season. The runner up spot was captured by Coleen Hector leaving the Somerset Valley team with a 12-6 lead at the end of the diving.

In the individual Medley events, both first places went to the visitors to narrow the margin to 18-17 in favor of Somerset Valley.

In the Freestyle events, normally a strong spot with Coach Al Scotch's girls, the visiting swimmers captured three of the four first places. The lone Somerset Valley victory was turned in by Debbie Baldwin in the 11 and 12 event. At the end of the Freestyle the visiting swimmers had moved into a 39-32 lead.

Next came the Breaststroke events and the local swimmers came up with a split of the four places and as Gail Gulick and Olivia Bissell captured two first places narrowing the margin to 57-50 in favor of Central Bergen. In the Backstroke events, the Central Bergen girls again showed their strength again as they swept three of the four first places. Christine Gara was the lone Somerset Valley winner in the 10 and under event. The Butterfly events which followed saw a repeat as Central Bergen again captured three of the four first places. The only local swimmer to break into the win column was Debbie Baldwin with her second victory of the day.

At the end of the Butterfly event, the visiting swimmers had moved to a 98-81 lead with only the four relay events remaining.

The opening relay became a disaster for both teams with both the home team quarter and the visiting team quartet being disqualified for illegal take offs. Thus the score remained the same going into the next event, the 11 and 12 relay.

Here the Somerset Valley quartet of Paula deScherbinin, Gail Gulick, Debbie Baldwin and Jane Perantoni brought home an impressive win to narrow the visitors lead to 10 points at 98-88. In the 13 and 14 event the Somerset Valley quartet of Sally Dittman, Olivia Bissell, Gail Turek and Susan Gaspar made a strong attempt to narrow the visitors lead to three points but lost out by a 4 tenths of a second margin to see the visitors roll their lead to 105-88. The closing 15 to 17 relay was also won by the Central Bergen team bringing the final margin to 112-88.

Despite an aggressive offense, the Manville High School Basketball Team was defeated Friday night by Watchung Hills Regional High School, 45-32.

Prep Finishes With 13-7 Mark

Rutgers Prep ended the regular season with a 13-7 record. Steve Steinberg, a junior, is likely to be the second Rutgers Prep basketball player in the school's history to go over 1,000 points for a career.

The 6-7 Argonaut pivot man rifled in 24 points to help Prep notch a 69-65 come-from-behind win over Montclair Academy.

Steinberg followed with 22 points in Rutgers Prep's 62-49 loss to Montclair College High.

The 66 points in two games gave the leading Somerset County high school scorer 466 points during the 1968-69 campaign and a career total of 918 points before yesterday's New Jersey State Independent Schools Athletic Association Tournament game against St. Bernards at Newark Academy.

The only Argonaut cager to tally over 1,000 points is Dan Esposito, who entered yesterday's game with 1,075 points. He had 27 against Montclair Academy and 15 in the loss to College High of Montclair.

Steinberg and Esposito rank 1-2 in the Somerset County school scoring race. In 20 games, Steinberg sported a 28-point per game average, while Esposito, who had 434 points, averaged 22 points per game in 19 outings.

WON SEVEN IN ROW

Rutgers Prep won its seventh game in a row in turning back Montclair Academy, 69-65.

The Argonauts broke to a 20-14 lead at the end of the first period, but were held to just nine points in the second quarter as Montclair was scoring 16. Montclair Academy squeezed in front, 30-29, at halftime.

The Lions added 19 points in the third period to 16 by Rutgers Prep to go into the final eight minutes in front, 49-45.

With three minutes to go, the Argonauts trailed, 59-58, Esposito pumped in a jump shot and Steinberg tallied on the end of a pass from Szeles. John Ward had a two-pointer for Montclair.

Szeles sewed up the game with a layup, showing the Argonauts in front, 64-60.

Rutgers Prep outpointed the Lions, 24-16, in the last period to come from behind for the fifth time during the seven-game string.

Szeles wound up with 10 points. Miklos and Hegedus rimmed four points each.

Franklin Outlasts Manville In Overtime Period, 56-55

Senior Ken Harrell scored two three-point plays during the overtime period on Tuesday afternoon when Franklin High outlasted stubborn Manville High, 56-55.

Franklin, which is pitted against Westfield High in the Central Jersey sector of the New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association Group IV Basketball Tournament, lifted its record to 11-7.

Manville finished a rebuilding year with a 2-19 record, having lost several close ones at the tail end of the schedule.

The Mustangs took a 17-0 lead at the end of the first period and continued to dominate play during the first half by scoring 16 points in the second period, while holding Franklin to just 11. Manville was out in front, 33-21, at intermission.

The scoring tempo picked up for the Warriors in the third period as they rifled through 14 points to nine for Manville. This cut the Mustang lead to 42-35 at the end of the third quarter.

The Warriors chopped away at the Manville lead and lagged behind by just two points with less than a minute left in regulation time.

Senior Nick Wojciechowski tied the score, 50-50, on a basket with 13 seconds remaining. The game then went into overtime.

Harrell launched the scoring in the extra period with his first three-point play. Fred Caprio and Andy Hrinak then countered with buckets as Manville regained the lead, 54-52, with 59 seconds left on the clock.

Harrell came to the rescue again and tallied his final three-pointer as the clock showed only 16 seconds to play, sending the Warriors ahead to stay, 56-54.

Lou Bartok clinaxed the scoring with a foul shot.

Harrell wound up with 17 points and Mike Bazin chimed in with 13. Wojciechowski and Ed Spencer flipped in 10 each.

Rick Koharki led all scorers with 19 points. Bartok racked up 14.

Franklin High's chances for a Mid-State Conference championship was shattered Friday night when pace-setting Bridgewater-Raritan-East scalped the Warriors, 74-64, in an important conference tilt.

The Warriors, fighting to stay alive in the Mid-State, led only once, 2-0, on Mike Bazin's two-pointer to open the game. The Minutemen then ran off eight straight points and began to pull away. At the end of the first period, Bridgewater-East led, 25-14.

The Minutemen flicked in 20 points during the second quarter and walked off with a comfortable, 45-25, halftime bulge.

Franklin's scoring picked up in the second half. The Warriors held a 39-29 scoring edge but it was not enough to overtake the Minutemen.

In the third period, Franklin popped in 17 points and racked up 22 points during the last eight minutes.

Bridgewater-West held on with 15 in the third quarter and 14 in the last.

Ed Spencer, a senior, had his best scoring night of the season. The tall Franklin center banged in 25 points. Nick Wojciechowski followed with 10. Bazin collected eight, while Ken Harrell and Cliff Harris hit for six each.

Loren Bates powered the Minutemen with 22 points.

Franklin's Ken Harrell (No. 42) pulls down a rebound against Manville's Lou Bartok (No. 13) in Tuesday's game in which Harrell dumped in the winning basket for Franklin.

New Jersey Deer Herds To Be Studied

An expanded research program concerned with deer, New Jersey's most valuable wildlife species, is getting underway.

The ultimate aim of the five-year project will be to gain a thorough understanding of the condition of the deer herd in various areas, its range and the quality of habitat.

The study is financed with federal aid funds derived from the excise tax on sporting arms, with matching funds from the sale of New Jersey hunting license.

The first new phase of the project involves tagging of deer in important wintering areas to ascertain the extent of range supported by key winter grounds, as well as other aspects of deer movement. Initial tagging is being undertaken in the Appalachian forest area of northern Warren County and a section of managed woodland in the Ocean-Burlington County area.

A helicopter survey, delayed by lack of snow cover in January, will pinpoint other wintering areas. Future tagging will include typical sections of central New Jersey farmland and southern New Jersey pine where deer management has not been undertaken.

Tagging starts with the difficult operation of capturing deer. Large wooden boxes, open on two ends are baited with apple pulp, an aromatic and nutritious by-product of cider making. A deer entering the box will trip a wire, causing doors to slam down over the openings.

These traps are tended at least once every day. Usually the captured deer will finish eating the bait and take a nap; however, the boxes small enough so the animal cannot hurt itself unduly by thrashing around.

The deer is then transferred to a tighter box, with a hole designed to temporarily immobilize the neck. This permits a cursory examination of the teeth, an indicator of age, and application of tags to the ears. The deer and box, which is of known weight, are then weighed on a portable spring scale, and the whitetail is released at the point of capture. The animal's general condition and the prevailing weather are noted.

Tags of three types are being used, two kinds of aluminum ear tag and a plastic streamer. Numbered aluminum tags are placed in both ears, to protect against loss and test the durability of each type. The streamers are of different colors and attached to different ears, according to the location where the deer was released.

Cooperation is asked of anyone seeing a deer with a streamer in its ear. The location where the deer was observed, the color of the streamer and which ear it was in should be reported to the Division of Fish and Game, Box 1809, Trenton.

Any tagged deer victimized by accident or shot during next fall's hunting seasons should likewise be reported, including the tag number. If possible, Fish and Game personnel should be notified immediately of the location of any deer found, and hunters should save the jaw. This will permit examination of fat and bone marrow, major indices of nutrition, as well as age, health and reproductive data.

Autopsies are already being conducted on any deer found after accidents. Project Biologists who should be notified are George Howard and Robert Lund in northern New Jersey and William Shoemaker in the south; if they cannot be reached, any Fish and Game Conservation Officer or Wildlife Biologist should be notified.

Construction of additional traps will permit expansion of the tagging program. Large nets and tranquilizer guns will also be tested for capturing deer; tranquilizers have been used to a limited extent for removing deer from enclosed areas, but have not yet proved effective in the wild.

Harvest and age data from 1968 deer seasons have been incorporated in the study. A fuller sample and more thorough reporting are envisioned in coming seasons, as well as more refined methods of calculating fall populations.

A map of the deer range throughout the State will result from the project.

Somerset Swim Team Defeated By Metuchen

The Somerset Valley YMCA girls swimming team closed its dual meet season last Saturday afternoon with a close 106-102 loss at the hands of the Metuchen YMCA girls team in the Metuchen pool.

The divers again led the way in the early stages of the meet as Darcy Thurston and Andrea Whitelaw captured both first places while Kim Whitelaw took a second and Sue Gottlieb a third to give the visiting Somerset Valley team a 14-4 lead.

In the Individual Medley events, Metuchen started their march capturing both first places and both third places while Somerset Valley was limited to two second place finishes. The second place winners were Sherril Guest and Jayne Clyde. In the Freestyle events, normally a strong point of the local Y swimmers, the Metuchen girls captured three of the four first places to move into a 34-29 lead.

In the 15 to 17 Freestyle event, Debbie Eberts and Linda Savidge turned in a 1-2 finish to regain the lead at 37 - 35.

In the Breaststroke events, the Metuchen swimmers again picked up the pace winning both the 10 and under and 11 and 12 first places and regained the lead by 48-42. Then the Somerset girls bounced back as Olivia Bissell and Shari Guest captured the first places in the 13 and 14 and 15-17 divisions to challenge for the lead again leaving Somerset Valley trailing by only 2 points 55-53.

This was the closest that Coach Al Scotch's swimmers were to come to regaining the lead until the end of the meet. Metuchen swept all four first places in the Backstroke events and moved out to a commanding 81-63 margin. In the Butterfly which followed, Metuchen captured two first places while Debbie Baldwin and Margie Clinton captured two first places for Somerset Valley. This concluded the individual events with Metuchen holding a 99 - 81 lead and needing one of the four relays to clinch the outcome of the meet.

The Metuchen swimmers, victims of an earlier defeat by Somerset Valley made sure of the win as they captured the 10 and under Medley Relay, the first of the four relay events to clinch the final score. Somerset Valley bounced back capturing the next three relay events and narrowing the margin to the final four point difference. Somerset Valley's winning relay team included Jean Perantoni, Gail Gulick, Debbie Baldwin and Nancy Houska in the 11 and 12 division, Sally Dittman, Olivia Bissell, Sue Wharton and Gay Murray in the 13 and 14 event. The 15 to 17 year old quartet was made up of Sandy Murray, Shari Guest, Margie Clinton and Debbie Eberts.

R.S. Johnston Elected To County Association

Franklin Township Welfare Director Robert S. Johnston was elected Vice-president of the Somerset County Municipal Welfare Directors Association at their regular meeting on Feb. 19 at the Far Hills Inn.

Others elected on the slate included, president, Mrs. Marjorie Yates, Director of Welfare Bridge-water Township; secretary, Mrs. Edith Vermulen, Director in Branchburg Township; and treasurer, Mrs. Theresa Baron who is Welfare Director for the Boro of Manville.

The county association represents the twenty-one municipalities having Local Assistance Boards, and is a member of the Municipal Welfare Employees Association of New Jersey.

This marks Mr. Johnston's first year as a member of the association, having joined after taking over the local post from the resigning Joseph A. Kysel in January of 1968. As Vice-president, Mr. Johnston will be in charge of programs for the association.

Mr. Johnston announced that at the Feb. 18 Local Assistance Board meeting, the board recommended the changing of the department's name from "Department of Welfare" to "Social Services Department." This is in response to the changing aspects of the welfare role at the local level from the purely financial to the broader range of social services, he said. Many municipalities in the state and throughout the country have already made this "name-change."

Regarding the Food Surplus Commodities Program, the local director said that in the two months the program operated, government surplus food was distributed to 1776 persons comprising 408 households.

He added that many local residents had indicated that they preferred the Food Surplus to the Food Stamp Program beginning in Somerset County on March 1. In conversations with officials in Trenton it has been indicated that there is a possibility that the Department of Agriculture, at some future date, may allow both programs to exist in the county with the individual having the option to choose the program that best suits him, Mr. Johnston said.

County Food Stamp Supervisor William J. Gross said that he was "greatly pleased" with the turnout on the Feb. 14 special township Food Stamp registration, adding that it was one of the best local registrations in the county. Of the 25 low income families registered, 21 were certified as eligible.

At the Tuesday board meeting the local members also heard Mr. Johnston's report on the caseload activities for the past year. After transferring approximately one-hundred cases to the county as of the first of the year, he still has in his present caseload approximately the same number of cases that were on the local rolls as of January 1968. These are individuals and households that do not fit into any of the categorical programs administered by the County Welfare Board, he said.

The Township's Local Board of Assistance has as its current members: Donald W. Braun of 66 De Mott Lane, chairman; Mrs. Thomas Kenneally of Buffa Drive, secretary; Rev. Charles Bridgeman of Amwell Road; Julius Bryant of 1192 Hamilton Street and Rev. James E. Robinson 91 Fuller Street. This unsalaried citizen board is designed to actively function in the supervision of the General Assistance program as administered by the township Director of Welfare, and holds regular meetings to review his activities.

Russian Club Travels To See "Three Sisters"

Russian Language students, all members of the Russian Club at Manville High School, sponsored by Arthur Lisicandro, traveled to Princeton on Wednesday, Feb. 19, to attend the "outstanding" performance of Anton Chekhov's play, "Three Sisters" at McCarter Theatre. The following MHS students attended the play, Denise Bartusek, Margaret Rich, MaryAnn Rich, Diane Rosick, Debbie Shigo, Michele Sniogocki, Donna Stanislaw, Kathy Stefanyshyn, Bill Bolash, Tony Caporaso.

Radio Station Faces Loss Of License

Somerset County's lone radio broadcasting station, WAWZ-fm, 99.1 m.c., is threatened with possible loss of its Federal Communications Commission license if it fails to remove and elevate its transmitting tower to the highest land point obtainable within a micro-wave, remote control system by March 16, it has been learned. Failure to establish a higher point of radiation, thereby achieving maximum geographical radiation of its broadcasting signal, could mean the loss of its prized transmitting license.

Operated by the Committee for Community Service, of Alma White College, the 15-year-old station's facilities have been located at practically sea level elevation here on the Campus of the Four Cultures - education, music, art and religion.

Construction on a new 10-foot square transmission building and installation of all new broadcasting and stereophonic systems is being rushed against odds of stormy weather and a lack of necessary funds.

A satisfactory 2 1/2 acres plot of ground, atop the highest point obtainable on the second range of the Watchung Mountains was just recently acquired off Mt. Horeb Road in Bridgewater Township. It has a ground elevation measuring 590 feet. Erection of a 226-foot steel tower, including a 70-foot eight-element transmitting antenna, will achieve a broadcasting point of 816 feet elevation.

"This will be well above the minimum requirements specified by the Federal Communications Commission," states Rev. Nathaniel Wilson, radio station engineer. It was further learned that consulting radio engineers have estimated that the increased elevation of the station's point of transmission will increase by four-fold, the listening audience potential from the present 1,500,000 to 6 million. It is said that this new radiation point, without any increase in power output, will contribute greatly to the new enjoyment of frequency modulation radio for residents in the so-called "fringe" areas wherever they may be in New Jersey. Particularly will this be the case in the surrounding counties of Somerset, Middlesex, Hunterdon and Union as well as Morris, Staten Island and Manhattan.

Not only is the transmitting equipment to be brand new, but the type of broadcasting will be new also. All the station's regularly scheduled programs of education, cultural, classical music, devotional and community service features are to be broadcast by new stereophonic systems.

It is said that receipt of the FCC notice created a distinct shock to the board of trustees of the 4-year liberal arts institution of higher learning. Failure to meet transmitting requirements, they knew, would mean a shut-down. Cost of the new installations recommended by consulting radio engineers was staggering - upwards of $55,000. The hopelessness of the situation was indeed desperate for the small private, nonsectarian, coeducational college, which, at that time, had an anemic bank balance of $52,500.

How to meet the immense new expenditure became, indeed, a fifty-five thousand dollar question. Seemingly insurmountable financial problems immediately came into focus. Private, non-tax supported institutions of higher learning normally are constantly exposed to innumerable financial harassments since no financial relief is obtainable from federal, state, county or school district level. "Alma" has the added pressures of meeting, monthly, expenses of keeping the radio station on the air.

Some appreciation of the magnitude facing the small private college may be gained when it is recalled that the radio station operates daily, seven days a week, on a free, non-commercial public service basis. The college does not have sizeable endowments, nor does the radio station promote fund-raising "gimmicks" in its behalf. Monies to cover basic operational expenses such as power, heat and taxes must come from free-will contributions from appreciative individual listeners.

There have been times, too many times in the past, when meeting bills assumed proportions of desperation. Somehow qualities of perseverance and faith have prevailed.

Now spot announcements are being made, advising listeners of a threatening closing of operations and asking for their support. It is said that several prosperous commercial enterprises are awaiting the opportunity to take over the radio station's license "for grabs."

Letters of encouragement from loyal listeners, containing donations, have started coming in. Phone calls are being received from persons concerned over the station's plight. Mostly they ask how they can be of assistance.

Offers of volunteer services of labor and technical skill have been accepted. Hope and vigor has been renewed. A new will to survive has been born.

"We have only about one-fourth of the money we need," said Dr. E. Jerry Lawrence, college vice-president and chairman of the Committee of Public Service Affairs. "WAWZ - fm listening friends have been both responsive and generous. We are humbly grateful to our friends, members of the alumni and numerous business firms. Suppliers of building materials and electrical equipment have been most cooperative. Everybody connected with the station, and the student body, are working hard to help us get the new stereo facilities on the air waves on schedule. The target date is pressingly close. There is much to be done and considerable more money is needed."

Jetport Hearings Set For Tuesday

TRENTON -- The next round in the protracted controversy over the proposed New Jersey global jetport is set for Tuesday, when the Senate Transportation Committee opens a hearing at 10:30 a.m., in the State Museum auditorium.

Arguments will be heard for and against the various jetport bills now before the state legislature. Opposing the Port of New York Authority's plan, to build the jetport at the present site of Solberg Airport on the Somerset-Hunterdon County border, is a bill backed by Senator Majority Leader Raymond Bateman, R. Somerset. The bill would create a five-man New Jersey Jetport Authority, with authority to choose a site and build an airport, subject to final approval of the site by the legislature.

An opposing bill, fostered by Assemblyman George C. Richardson, D. Essex, would allow the Port Authority to build the jetport at Solberg.

Mr. Richardson this week announced formation of the "Committee for 135,000 Jobs," a group impressed with the importance of relieving unemployment in the state's urban areas. According to Mr. Richardson, the racial disorders of the summer of 1967 "prove how desperately jobs are needed for people."

Recent entrants to the jetport controversy include the New Jersey Turnpike Authority, which has offered to build a jetport wherever Governor Richard J. Hughes directs. The offer was immediately countermanded by the Republican-controlled Senate, which passed a bill, with bipartisan support, requiring the authority to obtain legislative approval for any such undertaking.

The Somerset County Board of Freeholders has urged citizens to write or telegraph their state legislators, expressing their opposition.

CARE has started service to Lesotho and Kenya, Africa, with emphasis on self-help aid to develop rural resources.
